The Posthuman Rosi Braidotti

Braidotti outlines new forms of cosmopolitan neo-humanism that emerge from the spectrum of post-colonial and race studies, as well as gender analysis and environmentalism. The challenge of the posthuman condition consists in seizing the opportunities for new social bonding and community building, while pursuing sustainability and empowerment.

The Posthuman | Rosi Braidotti

THE POSTHUMAN is a rather startling work that requires heavy concentration on the part of the reader to follow the brilliant thinking of the author, Rosi Braidotti, a contemporary philosopher and feminist theoretician `who makes a case for an alternative view on subjectivity, ethics and emancipation and pitches diversity against the postmodernist risk of cultural relativism while also standing against the tenets of liberal individualism.'
