A wild setting, wild plot, you will really live the adventure with many interesting things. Sword Coast Adventurer's Guide was once highly controversial among critics. Because it is unlike Xanathar's guide to everything and Volo's Guide to Monsters, this book will give you a deeper understanding of the Forgotten Realms. In my opinion, it is really attractive if you want to go beyond the old 5e rules.

Phandalin was a human village located northeast of Leilon, where the road that ran from the High Road to Triboar faded into a trail. Hundreds of years ago, the old Phandalin was a thriving human town whose people were firmly allied with the dwarves and gnomes of the Phandelver's Pact. However, the same orc horde that sacked the mines at Wave Echo Cave laid waste to the settlement, and ...

Well, the team at Wizards of the Coast agrees, and they've build the Sword Coast Adventurer's Guide as a reference to craft worlds of adventure. The Sword Coast and all of Toril were imagined all the way back in 1975 (though the first books were released a decade later) and has been constantly refined ever since.
